Western Arts Agencies of North Carolina Traveling Postcard Exhibit

From April through July 2019, the Western Arts Agencies of North Carolina (WAANC) will coordinate a unique traveling art display. Eight arts councils in the region will present Postcards from the Edge, a traveling exhibit of postcard-sized artwork created and donated by area artists to raise awareness and funds in support of the mission of the councils involved.

The traveling Postcards exhibit will feature approximately eighty postcard-sized paintings framed in elegant black frames. The art will be exhibited in each arts council gallery for one month before traveling to the next venue. The artwork is nominally priced with sales revenue being shared by the presenting arts councils and the Western Arts Agencies.

Caldwell Arts Council will exhibit these works throughout the gallery May 3-25, 2019. Open Tuesday-Friday 9am-5pm and Saturdays 10am-2pm, the Caldwell Arts Council welcomes your visit, free of charge. An opening reception to celebrate this exhibition along with the "FROZEN IN TIME" exhibition will be held on May 3rd, 5-7pm, hosted by Lenoir Service League.

The mission of the Western Arts Agencies of North Carolina is to strengthen the arts community in Western North Carolina through peer support, shared resources, and collaborative programming. To accomplish this mission, the Western Arts Agencies works diligently to provide services to member organizations; to provide programs that nurture arts administration professionals and to provide programs which support the work of local arts organizations. These programs and mission are accomplished through the efforts of a volunteer board consisting of Western North Carolina arts council executive directors.
